Personal.

Maj. S. M. Dickey, of Independence, Va., paid us a pleasant visit last Wednesday.

Mr. E. H. Seneke has gone north for his fall and winter stock of goods. Mr. S. selects with unerring taste and care. Look out for something nice.

Mr. C. B. James returned from the eastern cities yesterday. He purchased a splendid and tasteful stock of clothing.

Mr. J. H. Pecor, of Richmond, the affable agent of Wyman, called on us yesterday.

"Parson" Massey was in town Sunday, the guest of Col. Fulkerson. He spoke at Abingdon yesterday on the State Debt.

Mr. Thos. W. Brown, the efficient and affable manager of the Gilberts called on us last Saturday. He left Sunday night for Knoxville.

Dr. Hicks yesterday discharged from his care Mr. Jacob Campbell, of Rheatown Tenn. having successfully removed cataract from his left eye. He also extracted cataract yesterday from the eyes of Mrs. Thoms and Mrs. Zimmerman, of Washington county Tenn.

Mr. John Flannery, by a slip of his knife yesterday split open the ulnar artery of his left forearm. It was ligated by Dr. Hicks. He lost a large amount of blood.

Vice President James of the N. G. R. R., and the editor of the News returned last night with ten more first-class convicts, who are already at work on the road.

Picken has just opened a thousand dollar invoice of new jewelry for the Fair.

Massey opened and Daniel closed yesterday at Abingdon. Crowd divided.

Mr. Massey says he cannot be at the Fair, but Maj. Daniel and Mr. Tucker are at Christiansburg to-day and have been directed by the committee to be at the Bristol Fair.

For the Senate.

We are authorized and requested to announce Col. A. FULKERSON a candidate for re-election to the Senate.

For House of Delegates.

We are authorized and requested to announce Mr. D. F. BAILEY a candidate for the House of Delegates.

In obedience to a call of a large list of respectable citizens of Washington county made sometime since through the Standard and News, and the repeated and earnest solicitations of many friends privately, I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent the people of Washington county in the next House of Delegates of Va. A proper and suitable time I hope to see most of my fellow-citizens and explain my views upon any and all questions touching the interest and prosperity of the Commonwealth.

C. H. LYNCH.

Go right to the Lager Beer Hall, King Block, for a fresh ice cold drink of Lager Beer. GEO. M. NICKELS.

Barker's Improvement.—Bristol's young merchant prince, J. M. Barker, ever foremost in every substantial improvement in our rising young city, is having a most elegant side-walk laid in front of his spacious store house on Main street. The material used is sandstone flagging, quarried near Saltville. The flags are long and broad and uniform in thickness. Mr. J. D. Smith of Saltville, is furnishing the flags and doing the work, and doing it well. Mr. Barker is taking a step in the right direction, and we hope the authorities of Bristol-Goodson and the citizens generally, will follow his example when a like is to be laid hereafter.

Wheat! Wheat!! Wheat!!! Bring your Wheat to Winston's Tobacco Warehouse, and we will pay you the highest price in CASH. July 15-3m J. H. WINSTON & SON.

C. B. James' Great Clothing House.—We would call the attention of our readers, and visitors to the Fair, to Mr. James' immense and varied stock of fall and winter clothing. He has just returned from the northern and eastern cities, where he has selected with great care all the newest styles and novelties in his line. In overcoats he is unexcelled. The Aretic is the latest and most perfect thing in the overcoat line we have seen, of which Mr. James has the exclusive agency. Don't fail to call at his establishment before buying. His prices are wonderfully low, and his stock of boys' and youth's clothing is the largest and best ever brought to Bristol.

For Sale.

A good two-story house containing four rooms 10x17, good dining room kitchen and store room. Lot containing 1/2 of an acre, property situated on Va. Hill, corner of Monroe and Edmond Streets. This is most desirable property, and can be bought very low for cash, or on short time. Apply at this office for further information, or to

Jas. T. CROCKETT.

Hot For the Fair!—Mr. J. M. Thomas will run his splendid Wagonette during the Fair. Only 25 cents the round trip.

Wheat Fertilizers at greatly reduced prices. Crop terms. J. H. WINSTON & SON.

Important Information for the People in vicinity of Bristol.—I have just received an immense stock of Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware, prettier and cheaper than ever. Do not fail to call or you will miss a great treat.

A. PICKEN, Bristol and Jonesboro, Tenn.

Band of Hope.—The Band of Hope will meet at the Christian Baptist church on next Sunday afternoon. All are invited.

assistants have been indefatigable in their efforts, and we have not a doubt but that they will see them crowned with success.

The attractions in the Speed Ring will be far in advance of any heretofore given. The low price of admission and the superior accommodations on the grounds will induce many to come who, heretofore have not been attending our Fair regularly.

Beautifiers.

Ladies, you cannot make fair skin, rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes with all the cosmetics of France, or beautifiers of the world, while in poor health, and nothing will give you such good health, strength, buoyant spirits and Beauty as Hop Bitters. A trial is a certain proof. See another column.—Telegraph, Sept. 16 '79—31.

The Gilberts

Will give four performances at Conway Hall, commencing Wednesday evening. "Mosquitoes," "Pink Dominoes" and "H. M. S. Pinafore" are among the pieces to be given. The Gilberts have everywhere given universal satisfaction. Our exchanges all along the line speak of them in glowing terms. Don't fail to see them. You will miss a treat if you do. Bristol is rarely visited by so celebrated a company.

He thought he heard "The angels sing" but it proved to be a chorus of yells from the next door children. He grew desperate, procured a bottle of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup and sent to Mrs. S. with his compliments. He was a bachelor.

St. Nicholas for October.

The October number of St. Nicholas closes the sixth volume of the magazine with an array of features hard to match in interest for the little folks. Louisa M. Alcott contributes the opening story entitled "Jimmy's Cruise in the Pinafore," a charming narrative illustrated with fine portraits of characters in the "Children's Pinafore."

The Elevated Railroads of New York are described in a long article by Charles Barnard, and with it are given eight admirable pictures of various views along the lines of the three New York Roads.

"Noah's Ark Ashore," is the title of another descriptive article which will be eagerly read by every boy and girl. It is a well told narrative of a visit to a queer 'Ark' on the Amazon river which a kind hearted native had turned into a sort of asylum for beasts and birds of various kinds. No finer pictures of animals have been printed of late years than the eight beautiful drawings which accompany this article.

Besides these, there is a timely little paper telling about the strange dangers and mysteries of 'Halloween,' while a very 'curious' 'Monastery' is shown in a full-page picture; and a fascinating 'Curious Monastery' is shown in a full-page picture; and a fascinating 'School in the Woods' is described by Maurice Thompson, the literary artist.

Of Stories there is a capital budget, beginning with the two serials 'Eyre-bright' and 'A July Fellowship,' which are both concluded in this number with 'Edmund's' installments. There is a lively fishing story—'Mr. Carothers' Secret'—What Kate Found in the Well.' 'An Educational Breakfast at the Perkins,' a fine poem called 'Duke Leopold's Stone,' and there are several funny pictures and verses scattered through the number, while the Departments at the end will look at least as inviting as ever to the young eyes that read them so carefully every month.

Piles, Hemorrhoids, is not the least of the many diseases which afflict mankind, but Tabber's Buckeye Pile Ointment, used according to directions, is a permanent cure. Price 50 cents a bottle.

For sale by J. A. Dickey & Co., druggists, Bristol, Tenn.

October for October.

The October FORBES opens with an open paper on Ups and Downs in Louisville, by Ernest Ingersoll, with numerous illustrations by Mrs. Mary Haddock Poole and J. Harrison Mills. Text and pictures occupy 23 pages. Much reliable information may be obtained from this paper.

Another seasonable paper deals with Field Sports in Minnesota and is written by Charles A. Zimmerman a noted sportsman of St. Paul.

An exquisitely soft and beautiful engraving, by Mr. Cole, of Fortney's Piping Shepherd, accompanies a poem by Charles de Kay, suggested by the original painting.

Under the title of Edison's System of Fast Telegraphy, Edwin M. Fox describes the automatic telegraph which was in operation for a year between New York and Washington.

A notable feature of this paper is a new portrait of Edison's, by Francis Lathrop, which is pronounced by the inventor's assistants to be the best yet published.

The subject of the fifth paper in the Brazil series, by Herbert H. Smith, is Rio de Janeiro.

Miss Kate Field's sketch of W. S. Gilbert, in the September number, is succeeded in this by a similar account of Arthur Sullivan, interspersed with anecdotes of the boy and the man.

A stanza by Philip O. Sullivan, entitled 'The New Year,' is the subject of a drawing by Miss Maria R. Oakley, which is richly engraved by Henry Marsh.

The unillustrated material comprises a suggestive paper by John Arbuckle, entitled Journalism, as exemplified by the late Mr. Bagehot.

English Spelling and Spelling Reform, by Prof. T. R. Lounsbury, of Yale, a sketch of unique and laughable experiences, by Jack Randolph, entitled, A Sailor in the Cotton Field; a full installment of Henry James' Confidence, and the conclusions of Mrs. Burnett's Hawthorne's which now gives way to Mr. Cable's new novel of Creole life, 'The Grandisseries'; two notable short stories: one of Roman life by Mr. Boyesen, entitled 'Annunziata,' and the other a vigorous dialect sketch by William Hawley Smith, entitled 'Dick—a piece of writing which is soon to be added to the repertoire of a prominent public reader. There are also poems by Irwin Russell, A. B. Boyle, John Vance Cheney, and William M. Briggs.

In his department Dr. Holland writes of The Popular Wisdom and Good Talking, and comments on a letter from Mr. Henry Kiddle. Home and Society. The World's Work, are replete with information and choice reading.

Save money and time by having Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills always on hand and using them for the numerous diseases which more or less trouble families at times. Sold everywhere. Price 25 cents.

The Gilberts.

Quite a large audience greeted the Gilberts at the Opera House last night when the new piece "Mosquitoes" was presented. The entertainment was one of the merriest we have seen for a long time and withal reigned supreme from first to last. It commenced with the presentation of the comedy "My Uncle's Will," which is one of the brightest and wittiest pieces of its kind ever presented on the Norfolk Boards. Free from all this insipid fatness which usually characterizes very light comedies, it has a fair proportion of real wit and humor, and is interspersed with ludicrous situations, which were admirably drawn by Miss Belle Gilbert and Messrs. James M. Gilbert and David R. Young, who assumed the various roles.

After the performance of the opening comedy, Miss Laura Russell and Mr. David B. Emery entertained the audience with musical performances on the "Belles" and with comic duets, which were loudly applauded and several times encored. "Mosquitoes" then followed and proved a "roaring burlesque," to use the theatrical phrase. It would be a difficult task to give any description of the piece, other than to say that it is a pleasing mixture of good music and fun, a regular romp with now and then a musical specialty to break in on the continuity of the side-splitting laughter indulged in by the audience.

Misses Katie, Belle, and Jennie Gilbert were all charming, and Messrs. James Gilbert, Harry Bell, David Young and Daniel Montmore were simply immense. But little Miss Kate carried off the palm. She was irresistible and captivated her audience, particularly the male portion thereof. She is a lively little creature, and was the life of the entertainment.

The orchestra was a very good one, and rendered some pleasing music—'Norfolk Virginia'.

W. F. Cummins' Pianos.

Mr. Cummins, of the old reliable Music Emporium, Knoxville, Tenn., is now having an elegant piano, both square and upright, made for him by one of the largest factories in this country, and has his own name on it. Having, for 5 years past, sold a piano made by the same house, he does not hesitate to put his name on it and give it a full endorsement. Those who have given the most perfect satisfaction in every case, and satisfaction will be guaranteed in every case in the future. A 6 years warranty is given with every piano sent out. The Pianos all have double veneered rosewood cases, granite treble or full agraffe, are well and durably made.

Prices, for net cash, range from $150 up. Sent direct from the factory.—Agents wanted everywhere. For catalogues and particulars, address

W. F. CUMMINS, Knoxville, Tenn.

Butchered by Spaniards.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A dispatch has been received here from Havana to the effect that the slaves of Cien fuegos in Cienueillas, Cuba, have risen in rebellion against the Spaniards and have joined the patriots, taking with them a large proportion of their masters' cattle. There is great indignation in Cuba over the massacre of about seventeen officers who served in the last Cuban Revolution on the patriot side, but have of late been residing in different places and following their different avocations. From their past records they were suspected of being in sympathy with the present revolution. Some were killed in their homes before their wives and children, by Spanish troops, and others were taken into the woods and slaughtered. The Captain General is causing an investigation and has ordered the Governor of Cienueillas to go and investigate, to appear before him to explain the cause of these butcheries.

A decree is published by authority of the home Government declaring the province of Santiago de Cuba in a state of war. Persons engaged in rebellion will be tried according to the law of March, 1870. The civil authorities of the province will continue in undisturbed performance of the duties, but criminal cases, were in its considered necessary, will be tried by court martial. Rebels surrendering within a fortnight after the publication of this decree will be pardoned.

From Rev. O. C. Rankin of Holston Conference

Severe Case of Sick Headache.

Messrs. Landrum & Litchfield, Abingdon, Virginia.

My wife has suffered for several years, at intervals of five and six weeks, with painful attacks of sick headache. She tried the usual remedies, with nothing more than temporary relief, if that. The attacks would return at the regular time, as usual. Her suffering would be of such character as to excite my appreciation. Having read the certificate of Bishop G. F. Pierce, recommending the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass" as an efficient remedy for such complaints, she at once commenced the use of it, and in her case the happiest results have been realized. When used according to directions she never experiences a symptom of the headache. I am confident a permanent cure of this disease can be effected by the use of this medicine.

Mrs. Rankin says she cannot overestimate the value of the Mass in her case, and would advise everybody who suffers as she did to use it.

G. C. RANKIN.

The Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass for Sick and Nervous Headache.

We will make any person a present of a nice 810 Bible, who suffers with sick or nervous headache, if they will use the "Seven Springs Mass" according to our directions, and then conscientiously say that it did not relieve them. This is a bona fide offer, and no money can be seen. We will not require any unreasonable conditions. Address,

LANDRUM & LITCHFIELD, Abingdon, Va. P. O.—Headache is the least complaint for which this remedy, the "Iron and Alum Mass" is efficient.

The "Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass" is for sale by J. A. Dickey & Co., and Banting & Pepper Bristol Tenn. Jan. 23, '79—14.
